CAYUGAN --- 1951

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF LANCASTER HIGH SCHOOL
LANCASTER, NEW YORK

MR. RICHARD KUBALAK

FOREWORD

"You can set your life to music."

*G*T is the desire of the Senior Class to present in this yearbook a recital of our school life--its repertoire of gay and serious moments.

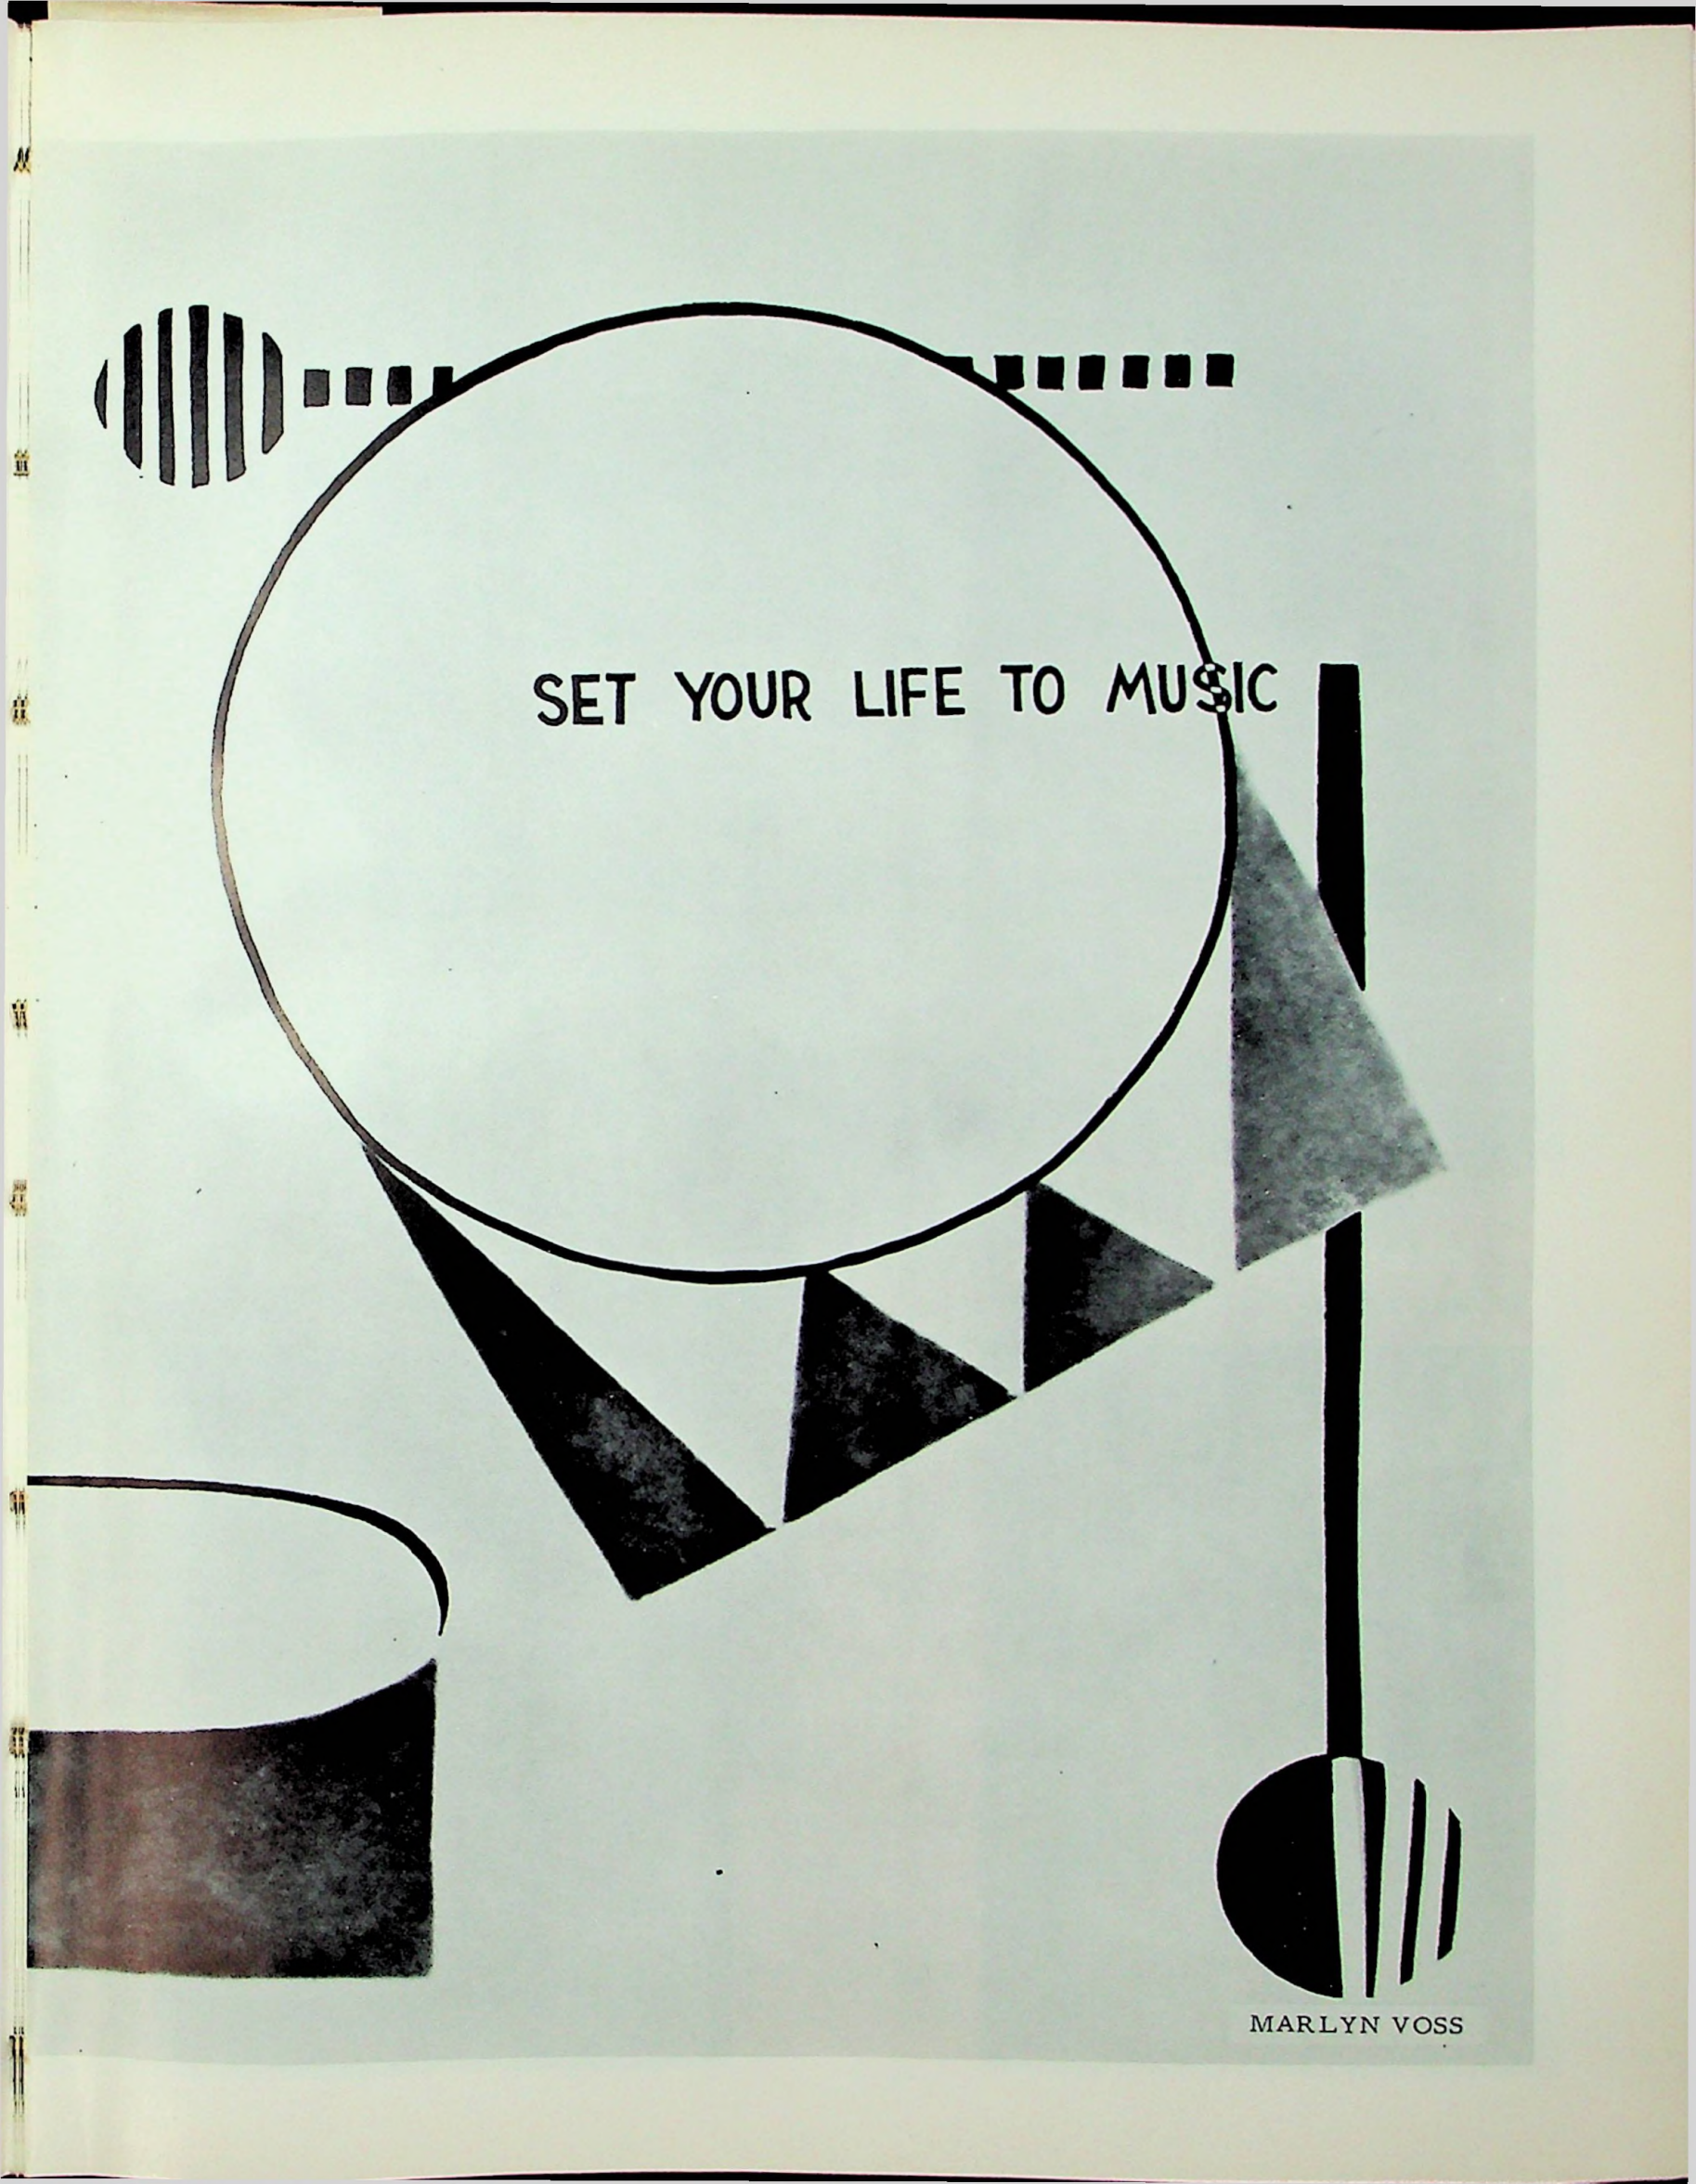

At Lancaster High the harmony of the teacher-student relationships, plus the rhythm of daily routine for four happy years, resulted in a pleasing symphony of major and minor school activities.

Each one of us has had an important part in this musical production. With the aid of the faculty members, who have imparted knowledge and experience, we have recorded our student symphony in the score of this Cayugan.

Our faculty conductors rehearsed us in each phase of school life, both in and out of the classroom. In this way they tried to develop harmonious individuals, not discordant ones.

So, as we draw our senior year to a close, our intentions are to practice harmonious living. Only then can we become better citizens of the future.

DEDICATION

By the famed Cayuga, that once held life
in thrall,
Stands a venerated building, stands a noble hall.

'Tis our Alma Mater, of all our lives
a part;

'Tis a place so dear to the mind, to the heart.

My school, my school, our school forever.
When my heart is bleeding and when for youth I yearn,

Time will then speed backward, mem'ry
will return ---

To the famed Cayuga, where stands the school, Lancaster!

*I*N grateful appreciation for his constant patience and extra services, not only in the Music Department and Photography Club, but throughout the entire school, we, the Class of 1951, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Marlo Schermerhorn. In his never-ending aim for perfection he has given us the words and music to an inspiring Alma Mater. We shall never forget it!

CLASS HISTORY

TODAY, our motto, "Not finished, just begun," means more than ever before. In this, our Senior year at Lancaster High School, we have only three more occasions to look forward to as our yearbook goes to press: our Senior Ball, to be held in the Masonic Temple on April 6; our Senior Play, scheduled for April 27 and 28 --- and the memorable night of graduation, June 25.

Looking backward, we can consider our card sale, our very successful Sadie Hawkins Day Dance, and our stationery sale, all carried to completion under our capable class officers: Edward Berent, class president; Charles Coykendall, vice-president; Carroll Possehl, secretary; and Shirley Cassillo, our treasurer. Along with these projects were the Senior Social Nights which gave us many pleasurable hours.

From last year we wish to remember our Junior Prom, when Donald Lein and Beverly Brown reigned as king and queen. Nor can we forget the overwhelmingly successful candy sale at Easter, which went far to support the cost of this annual.

Our Sophomore year recalls the Hop, the first of our "Big Three Dances." In that year we made our studied choice of maroon and gold for class colors, with the yellow rose as our class flower.

And now our faces are turned to the horizon, and our motto re-echoes in our ears, "Not finished, just begun."

TRAINING BAND

THIS music group is drawn chiefly from the seventh and eighth grades. Their president is Judith Doig and their Music Council representative is Carl Bruess.

For the first time, the Training Band was scheduled for two in-school rehearsals weekly. During the course of the year they played at the high school assembly, and in the Parade of Bands Concert.

CONCERT BAND

THIS important musical organization furnishes the nucleus of the Pit Band, which plays at the high school's bi-weekly assemblies. Its president is Clayton Chapman, and its representatives on the Music Council are Carroll Possehl and Donald Hentzy.

The Concert Band had a very active year, sending eighteen representatives to the All-State competition at Arcade. They also played for the football games, the Halloween parade, Parents' Night, Family Day at Westinghouse, the Christmas concert, and a School Street Assembly. They set an attendance record for participation in the Parade of Bands Concert.

SENIOR PLAY

As our yearbook goes to press, the Senior Class is busily preparing for its class play which will be presented April 27 and 28. The play selected this year is "Cheaper by the Dozen," dramatized by Perry Clark from the book by Frank B. Gilbreth, Jr. and Ernestine Gilbreth Carey. Because of the great interest aroused by the book and the movie, the Senior Class feels confident that the play will be well received by local residents.

The cast includes Patricia Frost, Edward Kucio, Paul Weinbach, Barbara Schutt, Jean Seaward, Jack Baker, Madeline Astri, Robert Mills, Onalee Laraiso, Carol Putnam, Marjorie Weaver, Donald Lein, Charles Coykendall, and Ronald Volker. The two youngest children in the Galbreth family will be played by members of the Class of 1956, Loren Hadsall and Dennis Gerlach.
